

Capitol Jobs Marketplace

Gongwer News Service Job Postings

Michigan Legislative Council - Legislative Service Bureau

Research Attorney, LSB Research Services Division

General Description: This employee gathers, synthesizes, and analyzes legal and technical information to provide high quality, unbiased research to state legislators and legislative staff. Communicates findings in writing and orally to support public policy development and bill drafting. Provides legal review of Division products. Drafts policy resolutions for state legislators. Completes assignments independently with a moderate amount of supervision.

The LSB Research Services Division is part of the Legislative Council, which provides non-partisan analysis, information, and research services to members of the Michigan Legislature related to bill drafting and other legislative areas.

Salary range: Commensurate with experience. Minimum salary is $65,713.

Minimum Qualifications: Graduation from an ABA-accredited law school required. Membership in good standing in the State Bar of Michigan required. Some legal writing and research experience required. Familiarity with the legislative process, state government operations, and Michigan statutes desired. Excellent writing and research skills required, including knowledge of legal research resources. Excellent oral and interpersonal communication skills required, including the ability to work with diverse personalities. Ability to work collaboratively in a team environment. Must be willing and able to work overtime and irregular hours as required.

How to Apply: Online applications only are accepted through the State of Michigan's job posting website: www.governmentjobs.com/careers/michigan. Apply by 5:00 pm on Sunday, February 25, 2024.

Applicants must include cover letter, resume, and a copy of law school and college transcripts in their online application.

This is an unclassified, non-Civil Service position in State government. All Legislative Council employees are considered "at-will," except for LSB Printing Division union members. Employees are required to be non-partisan.

More Information: Contact the LSB Human Resources Office at 517-373-9643 or HumanResources@legislature.mi.gov.